HEALTH AND SAFETY POLICY FOR THIS EVENT

1. The Organiser has overall responsibility for Health and Safety.
2. The event is organised in accordance with Health and Safety legislation and all who have (to any extent) control of premises or site at the event are responsible for ensuring that:
 - a) everything reasonably practicable is done to ensure the Health & Safety and Welfare of those attending the event.
 - b) those attending the event conduct themselves so that they do not put themselves or anyone else at risk
 - c) access to and egress from the site is safe
3. Emergencies-emergency services must have access to all parts of the event site at all times and members of the public must not park vehicles so as to obstruct access. First Aid points are clearly marked.

In case of emergency, members of the public should contact the nearest official or dial 999 on the nearest telephone.
4. Horses can easily be frightened and can be dangerous. Members of the public are requested to keep clear from horse areas/lanes and to avoid behaviour which might alarm horses.
5. Dogs MUST be on a lead and under close control at ALL times. Please clear up after your dog.
6. All competitors must ensure that they have adequate/appropriate insurance for themselves, horses, property and third party.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. The Judges' decision is final
2. Legal Liability: neither the Organisers nor any persons acting on their behalf accept any liability for loss, damage, accident or illness to ponies/horses, riders, spectators or any other persons or property.
3. The Committee reserves the right to alter or amend the schedule.
4. Making a Protest: protests or complaints may only be lodged as per Rule G14.1 in the 2019 Handbook (page 25) and Rule G14.2 (same page)
5. Hard hats to the standard acceptable to British Riding Clubs (see their website) must be worn and correctly fastened at all times whilst mounted.
6. The competition will be run according to the Show jumping rules in the 2019 BRC Handbook (RulesSJ1: Show jumping, pages 50 – 60 of the 2019 BRC Handbook)
7. The Committee reserve the right to ask anybody to leave the show ground.
8. If attending the Show on your own – you MUST leave an emergency contact name and (mobile) telephone number with the Show Secretary when you arrive and pick up your number.
9. Photographs: by entering this competition you are agreeing to be photographed whilst at this event: these photographs may be used for future publicity. If you do not wish to be photographed, please tell the photographer on entering the arena, before you start your round.
10. Please do not leave horses/ponies tied to the outside of lorries/trailers unsupervised; if horses/ponies are known to get distressed when left on lorries/trailers please ensure that there is someone with them at all times. Please do not muck out onto the field, and remove any droppings.
11. Dogs – preferably no dogs, but if brought to the venue they must be on a short lead and under control at all times; please clear up after them. If the weather is hot, do not leave in your vehicle, even with windows open – any dog(s) seen in distress will be rescued and there will be no compensation for any damage caused to the vehicle
12. Times will be given and we ask that you do your best to adhere to them – if you think you will miss your time then please let the collecting steward know asap and they will try and fit you in before the end of the class. Please be ready at least 15 minutes before your given time - if we get ahead we stay ahead: if we get behind, please be patient, there has probably been an incident.

DISCLAIMERS

1. Save for the death or personal injury caused by the negligence of the organisers, or anyone for whom they are in law responsible, neither the organisers of this event, BRC nor any agent, employee or representative of these bodies, nor the landowner or his tenant, accepts liability for any accident, loss, damage, injury or illness to horses, owners, riders, spectators, cars/lorries./trailers, their contents and accessories or any other personal property whatsoever.

Entries are only accepted on this basis.

2. The organisers of this event have taken all reasonable precautions to ensure the health and safety of everyone present at this event. For these measures to be effective, everyone must take all reasonable precautions to avoid and prevent accidents.

Everyone on the site during the event must obey the instructions of the organisers and all officials and stewards.
